He was followed by Frank A. Bucklyn and Dr. John K. Bucklyn of Mystic, who testified to having been in the hospital when the Webster boy was brought there and told about his condition.

In the afternoon session of court Daniel P. Casey, who was driving the car, described how the accident occurred. He said the car was going about ten miles an hour when the boy jumped out sideways into the road and was struck.

He testified to the fact that he was talking with the children before the accident and seeing the child and was in a high rate of speed.

Coroner Franklin H. Brown was the next witness. He told of going to New London to investigate the accident, after which the plaintiff rested his case.

Lois E. Daboll, civil engineer, was the first witness for the defense and he explained maps of the scene of the accident.

DISPLACED BAILEY FROM THE LEAD

Lewis and Pettis in Front in West Side Pinch.

In their play on Wednesday night an upset among the leaders of the West Side Pinch took place, when Lewis and Pettis took the first place from Bailey, who has held the lead almost from the start of the present season. By the fortunes of the game these two players were partners for the whole evening, Pettis getting over $500 and Lewis nearly that figure.
